cent or promised. & to ask donation to be sent to himself, though Sam Downer is Secy of the Committee: has the opportunity & too good to be lost to make an honest man of himself without repentance. Aposto Johnathan Hacker is discovered to have stole a jack knife when he was a boy 30 years ago; & the Pastor of some Jas. Haines Barnstable Baptist thereupon, with many profound bows to my amiability & accomplishments, thinks I had better come to the cake to learn his character before vouching for it. I took the occasion at dinner yesterday, to give the children a practical illustration of the awful consequences of sin, even after having been converted & confessed for more than 30 years. We have all at the Norfolk meeting — nobody present but the choirboards & the choicest & on the evening Nat. Hall the Minister, who is very friendly. Eliza & I, (for he went together from Roxbury) & coming up the hill one may, met Lucia & Anne coming up the hill (Dr Harris's the other) took tea at R. Clark's. Excellent folks, well off. & the girls have Paint a head-spread for the Fair which will be a feature. I engaged to buy $30.00

I enclose Mrs Bradford's pattern of the veteran chemise. If you have Sewers of plain work at Mr. B. get half a dozen Cotton ones, hemmed round the top & sleeves with Smyrna Lace, & I will buy them. If you want yet them made, I shall send elsewhere Let me know. We contemplate a toy-table in the centre of the Hall, which will keep children's paws in order. I shall buy a few things, say $10. 00 for it of such as cannot be made. Who can make rag-babies? They would sell like wild-fire. Mrs Jack Allen has hershoke a family of Judas's, or a mundane family if you will, such as we had once from Nantucket. I send the bouquet-holders. Don't forget the straw-baskets. I shall send a E Reall or Gay rather to look for what baskets N York Contains. The ones I want are not to be had here & are, I am told in N.Y. In great haste yours
